

WESTENSKOW. 7s

Marie C. Turk, 1951

"Blessed be the Lord, who daily bears us up" Psalm 68:19

1: I am thinking of the love that comes
2: For thy wise and tender care Of thy

1: As I watch the rising sun When the day has just begun,
2: Father turn thine ear to me; Let me offer thanks to thee

1: I am thinking of the love That comes daily from above.
2: For thy wise and tender care Of thy children ev'rywhere.

1: I am thinking of the love That comes daily from a -
2: For thy wise and tender care Of thy children ev'ry -

1: I am thinking of the love That comes daily from above.
2: For thy wise and tender care Of thy children ev'rywhere.

10

1: daily from above.
2: children ev'rywhere.

I am thinking of the love That comes daily from above, That comes daily from above.
For thy wise and tender care Of thy children ev'rywhere Of thy children ev'rywhere.

1: I am thinking of the love That comes daily from above, from above. That comes daily from above.
2: For thy wise and tender care Of thy children ev'rywhere, ev'rywhere. Of thy children ev'rywhere.

1: -bove I am thinking of the love that comes daily from above, from above, That comes daily from above.
2: -where For thy wise and tender care Of thy children ev'rywhere, ev'rywhere, Of thy children ev'rywhere.

1: I am thinking of the love That comes daily from above, from above. That comes daily from above.
2: For thy wise and tender care Of thy children ev'rywhere, ev'rywhere. Of thy children ev'rywhere.